What people appreciate about me

Friendly, open, caring, trustworthy, helpful, good sense of humour, family centred

What is important to me

- Helping and encouraging others, especially starting a new coffee morning for PIPS to include others.
- My family are very important to me, my husband, 2 sons, 2 step daughters and 5year old grandson.
- I enjoy supporting Manchester City and watching football, especially sharing this with my youngest son Joseph.
- My hobbies include: - Cake Icing, church activities and collecting Beatrix Potter figures.

How to support me in my role

- Be given an action plan of things expected of me, with all information to fulfil the tasks.
- Be aware I am practical, not academic and don't always fully understand all abbreviations, acronyms and terminology.
- I am a visual learner.
- I am a very social person, I need support and encouragement from others, as I lack confidence.
